AN ENGLISH & CHINESE COOKERY BOOK, BY J. DYER BALL.

Containing 200 Recipes in English and Chinese.

EXTRACT FROM PREFACE: "The Compiler has prepared this work in consequence of several persons having spoken to him of the great want of a Cookery Book, which could be placed in the hands of native cooks in foreign employ. It has been his endeavour to arrange the contents in such a systematic form as to ensure facility in use. It has not been without difficulty that the phraseology as well as the terminology employed in foreign cookery has been rendered into the equivalents in Chinese, Flowing sonorous periods and a high classical style have not been the objects aimed at, but the rendering of the Recipes in, such a clear and simple style as to be readily understood by the average Chinese cook, who, though able, as a rule, to read and write, is not generally a highly educated individual. The foreign resident can thus order any Dish, by showing to his Cook the Chinese translation of the English Recipe, and get what he wants, provided the Cook closely

HINGSONS, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1890.

THAT familiar colloquialism regarding the sweeping properties of a new broom is the customary summing up of what is supposed to represent public opinion in this colony with reference to the political programme of the Hon T. H. WHITEHEAD, Junior unofficial member of the Legislative Council. M WHITEHEAD entered our local parliament pledged to do his utmost to protect and sale-guard the rights and privileges of the community, and especially of the vast commercial interests which, as the elect of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce, he directly represents; and so far, if no great reform has been accomplished, he has unmistakeably displayed a spirit of resolution that is commendable and given ample proofs that it is not his intention to play the feeble rôle of a silent member. Being a keensighted man of business, and gifted with almost a superabundance of physical and mental energy, added to that unequalled perseverance so characteristic of the Scottish Race and an extensive experience of commercial life in all its phases, the to the lucky recipients) and has caused junior unofficial member is admirably such a very great deal of dissatisfacqualified for his self-imposed task of tion throughout the Service, that we judiciously pruning and simplifying the consider Mr. WHITEHEAD has initiated antiquated involved, and expensive systems | most excellent measure of reform in conspicuous in the management of the advocating the discontinuance of a practice various departments of the Government service, and where necessary, introducing beyond suspicion; and we feel justified in new and improved methods. Of late years, business management in nearly all mercantile enterprises has undergone wonderful improvements; obsolete methods have been abolished and new systems introduced, ensuring increased efficiency so weakly qualify his proposition regardand a substantial saving both in time ing the acting appointment difficulty, by and money. It is only in the Govern- leaving a loop-hole for the proverbial ment departments that reform in this four-wheeled coach. As his Excellency direction has stood still; they have hung the Acting Governor very justly remarked, with leech-like persistency to the old the phrase "under very exceptional routine, the old fashioned, cumbrous circumstances" may be considered as an methods, barricaded round with coils of unknown quantity; and as we have already that red tape which is such a suggestive pointed out, its inclusion in the resolution symbol of their rampant conservatism, renders nugatory the beneficial results and of which this latest double barrelled that otherwise might reasonably have Audit absurdity is a fair example. And been expected from its adoption. yet the direction of the Government of whole question of acting appointments Hongkong is just as much a business covers too much space to be exhaustively operation as is the management of a bank, criticised here, but its importance cannot public company, or private firm, and the be gainsaid, and we will deal with sooner that wholesome truth is recognised it in its several bearings in a special by the Governor and practically acted article. However, so far as the principle. upon by the Council the better will it be is concerned and whatever may be Lord for the efficiency of the departments, the pockets of the tax-payers, and the can safely rely on the support of the convenience of the community. One has only entire community in his attempt to bring to point to the recent expensive scandals in within reasonable limits what of late connection with the Money Order Office, years hasbecome little short of a scandal the Treasury, and the Supreme Court to prove the defective system that has become $4.50 clogged with the rust of ages and the happy-go-lucky ideas of duty and responsibility so common throughout the higher ranks of the Civil Service, Mr. WHITEHEAD'S, series of questions to the Head of the Executive may, we assume, be taken to indicate the opening skirmishes of a crusade against these departmental shortcomings and defects, and as the need for radical changes has long been 2.00 recognised and admitted, it can hardly be doubted that his efforts will be supported ment, and there are, on the other hand, by his colleagues on the so-called opposi- much stronger reasons why our police tion bench and eventually by the Government itself. At the meeting of Council held last Monday Mr. WHITEHEAD brought forward certain resolutions on the subject of the re-adjustment of official salaries, a 1.00 question which for some time past has attracted considerable attention and led to a good deal of discussion. Although the general opinion in the colony, outside requires moral courage of no mean order official circles, was that our public servants, with perhaps a few noteworthy exceptions, were already handsomely paid. for the work they did, the recommendations which were adopted by the Secretary of State for a re-adjustment of salaries, if not unanimously approved of, at least dissatisfaction caused but little Hongkong The comment. desire tax-payers, having their servants should consider themselves inadequately remunerated, willingly acquiesced in the liberal concessions sanctioned by Lord Knursvorp, and in return only look for efficiency and civility, matters generally affecting the colony qualities which in the past have not always been met with in certain departments. The junior unofficial member's resolutions, which had been previously signed by his four colleagues-although for unknown reasons one of the four, the Hon. J. J. Kaswick appears to have afterwards repented of his action-, were briefly that a minimum and maximum salary to be paid in local currency, with a periodica! rate of increase from the lowest to the highest amounts, that all personal allowances, special grants, office fees, etc., should be abolished, and that the Registrar and Deputy Registrars of the Supreme Court, the Police Magistrates, the First Clerk at the Magistracy, the Land Officer, the Supreme Court Interpreters, and the Clerk of Councils and Chief Clerk in the Colonial Secretary's office, should in future be prohibited from filling any appointment, either permanent or acting, outside their own respective departments. There was a saving clause introduced into the last mentioned resolution-namely, that the forbidden transfer from one office to another might be arranged "under very exceptional circumstances"-which completely nullified its intended effect and made it worse than useless.

The proposal that all appointments shall have a minimum and maximum salary attached, with a periodical rate of increase, requires no advocacy, and allows no room for argument; it is the only business-like way in which such a matter can be arranged satisfactorily for both employer and employe. And the desirability of the total abolition of all perquisites in the shape of allowances. office fees, or special grants is equally apparent, The system of fees and allowances for certan appointments has never worked well in Hongkong (excepting that in some respects has never quite been believing that the Secretary of State will endorse this view and promptly sanction the alterations proposed. It a pity that the Chamber of Commerce representative should have thought fit to KNUTSFORD'S decision, Mr. WHITEHEAD to the Administration. The honorable member was perhaps unfortunate in including the Police Magistrates in his list of permanent and immovable officials, but we must at the same time admit that much might beurged both for and against; and although it is perfectly true, as his Excellency stated, that the present Chief Justice was once a magistrate-Sir James Russell has, as a matter of fact, filled at one time or another most of the important appointments in the local Government service—that is really no relevant argumagistrates should be mon thoroughly versed by the experience of years in their special duties. It is, of course, not an easy task to draw a hard and fast line in effecting a radical change of this kind without infringing on private interests, which are frequently, but erroneously, regarded as yested rights; and in a limited and wonderfully constructed community like ours to battle for the right, and then face the ordeal of social ostracism and undeserved abuse as your sole reward, . But in spite of select combinations of the official classes, and the solfish, self-interested desires of that other influential class who "wish things left to rub along just as they are," public rights must be protected and upheld at all hazards.

REFERRING to the late "money panic" JAY Gould is the heaviest owner of securities in on the London Stock Exchange we note the the world, his income from dividends alone being Le Progrès de Saigon of the 26th ultime $2,000,000 a year, and his other income five put lishes a telegram wherein it is claimed or six times as great. If this is true Mr. that the Bank of France assisted 'n pull Gould makes $12,000,000 a year, and his wealth their neighbours through the crisis by must be far more than it has usually been advancing the sum of three millions sterling. Our Saigon confemporary's cablegram runs thus :-"London, November 17th -A financial crisis has been avoided by the Bank of England and other financial houses who have helped large Banking house to keep sfirst. The Bank of France loaned to the Bank of England the sum of 3 millions."

WE gather from a perusal of late files of I spanese papers that there is a movement on foot in the "Land of the Rising Sun" to do away with foreign aid in every respect; advisers, professors experts and officers of the two; branches of the military services are to become conspicuous by their absence within the space of year or two. The Japan Mail, the subsidise organ of the Japanese Government, referring to vox populi in Dai Nippon, says that it has long been the ambition of the Japanese to become independent of foreign aid in every respect, and they will not rest until they have accomplished their purpose. To condemn such a sentiment would be extravagant. It is natural, and all thinking persons must have foreseen its growth. In not a few cases, however, the agitation against foreign employes has been prompted and fostered by youthful officials whose chief motive has been jealousy that the foreigner should occupy a position for which they think themselves qualified: This, too, is very human. The rising generation has its own interests and prospects to consider, and if it does everything in its power to secure for itself the plums now plucked by outsiders, who will venture to assert that his own conduct would be different under similar circumstances?

WE notice from Indian exchanges that the evergreen Tommy Hudson of "Surprise Party" renown is playing to crowded houses in Calcutta Mr. Hudson's new combination comprises severa stars in their own particular line of business and there is a strong probability that they will visit Hongkong in April or May next Local mashers are particularly requested to note that one of the leading ladies sings love songs in tights; at least we have the authority of Hayes Sporting News for this statement and a scribe on the staff of that interesting periodical reads the erring artiste a lesson in the following strain:-"Another reason why I am disappointed with the performances of the ladies is, I believe because we Calcutta residents have been spoiled by the delightful singing, and the thousand and one graceful ways of little Miss Plaisted. She was such a delightfu actress, and always put so many touches o nature into her singing, that she won all hearts At the same time, no matter what comic rubbis she may have been singing, she was never vulgar, nor did she try to gain one jot of approva by ogling the men or annoying the ladies in the audience, and making enemies of them. The wise little woman knew that to have done so would have been to ruin business; for where ladies won't go, one will find but few men."

THE affairs of the new Yokohama Dock Company seem to be somewhat complicated at present. The Chinal Nippo commenting on the company's position says, the projected works of the Yokohama Dock Company are an undertaking of large magnitude to be ranked side by side with the Yokohama Harbour improvement scheme. The promoters of the company are the principal merchants of Yokohama, and an application for a charter on the basis of capital of three million yen, according to estimates made by General Palmer, was presented to the Department of Home Affairs in the beginning of last year. Meanwhile, the effects produced by the establishment of numerous nercompanies have told on the financial state the country and caused something like a panic owing to scarcity of circulating capital. The Government has consequently hesitated to grant the application, and the company, for the same reason, has not been eager in soliciting a charter. We are now informed that the examination of the specifications and estimates has been concluded and that, so soon as the action of the Cabinet has been obtained, a charter will be given to the company. This event will probably occur in the latter part of November. The promoters will hold a meeting as soon as the charter is received and discuss whether the money shall be called in and the works begun or not, as it would be a serious question to withdraw so much capital from circulation in the present circumstances of the money market.

THE INSTITUTION OF ENGINEERS AND SHIPBUILDERS.

INAUGURAL MEETING.

A crowded meeting of subscribers to the above named institution was held at No. 16. Praya Central, last night under the presidency of Mr. David Gillies, M.I.N.A., Chairman at the Hongkong and Whampon Dock Company. There were present Messrs. George Peebles and Robert Cook (vice-Presidents); A. G. Altken, J. W. Crocker, A. Crawford, E. J. Main, D. MacDonald (Committee); Mr J. W. Kew. Treasurer pro. tem, Mr. W. H. Walker, Secretary pro. tem; and Mesira. W. Ramsay (Supt. Engineer of Scottish-Oriental Company) W. Todd S. Munchie, H. Carmichael, Comer. J. Macdenald, F. Bentley, F. Chesney, W. Wilson, C. Brumley, T. Clarke and many others.

Mr. Gillies, who on tising was greeted with long-continued applause, said that it was with feelings of great pleasure that he agreed to take the Chairatthe meeting. An institution of the kind new inaugurated would, he felt sure, prove itself worthy of the important section of the world's communities that it was supported by. The institution would prove valuable to the members in many ways, and as it grew in years so he hoped it would grow in prosperity, from every point of view. The meeting was convened for the purpose of considering the carefully drawn up report of the indefatigable committee entrusted with the formation of the institution; to confirm the adoption of the general rules and proceed with the election of regular office-bearer, for the ensuing year, Though the business of the meeting was strictly confined to the consideration of subscribers, still the Committee warmly welcomed those who had not yet definitely decided to join the Institute. Having received but brief notice of the hour of meeting he would not on the present occasion deliver a lengthy address and thought that as there was a good deal to be done it would be well to call upon the Acting Secretary to read the report of the organizing committee. The speaker resumed his scat amidst loud applause.

Mr. W. H. Walker then read the report of the committee which ran as follows :---

"About March this year several engineers in the port met and discussed the advisability of forming an Engineers' Association in Hongkong. and at their request Messrs. Carmichael and Kew proceeded with certain preliminaries, so far as to obtaining by circular, an opinion on the subject from the larger body of engineers ashore and affoat. Their opinion was so favourable to the project that after a time a Provisonal Committee was formed, consisting of Meisrs, Aitken, Groundwa'er, Main, Croker, Bain and Walker, to act with the promoters in the matter and proceed with the formation of the body as proposed. This Committee, however, being considered somewhat informal, after alapso of time the members of the Provisional Committee decided to call a general meeting of subscribers and requested the formation of a properly constituted committee to be intrusted with the business of forming the Institute, and to engage the necessary rooms &c. At this meeting, held on 3rd October at the Victoria Hotel, an Organising Committee was elected, which committee at their several meetings held from time to time at the office of the Hon, Secretary drew up the set of rules now submitted to the meeting, and also negotiated for the rooms in which the meeting was being held, as well as approaching several gentlemen connected with the profession for the positions, President and Vice-Presidents. Mr. David Gilles honoured us by accepting the post of President, Mesers. James Wotton, R.N., and George Peebles, Government Surveyor, also honouring us by consenting to act as Vice-

Throughout the deliberations of the Organising Committee the securing of suitable premises has been a matter of very great concern, and in arriving at a decision as to arranging for the present premises the Committee felt that some acknowledgment was due to Messrs. Carmichael & Co. for their offer in connection with their new establishment, a portion of which they offered to let to us at a very moderate rental. The committee, however, considered that all interests would be best served by the selection of the present premises, although the rental, altogether, is some $40 a month more especially when the extent of accommodation, appointments &c., are properly looked into ...

Regarding rules, the work connected with this part of their duty the committee have found considerably lightened by the assistance and guidance obtained from the rules of similar bodies, particularly the Ploneer Institute, the Shanghai Marine Engineers Institute, together with those of Indian and other associations, not omitting the rules existing of the late Hongkong Engineers I Institute of which a felf present may have a set institution the Institution of Engineers and Skibbuilders.

Mr. Aitkin moved and Mr. MacDouald soc unded that "That the Marine Engineers of Hongkong do constitute themselves into an Institution to be called "The Institution of Engineers and Shipbuilders of Hongkong," and to be registered under The Companys Ordinance of Hongkong and in pursuance of section 22 of Ordinance No. 1 of 1877, the liabillity of each, Member to be limited to the sum of Ten dollars in the event of the Institution being wound up whilst he is a Member or within one year thereafter-and that a Committee be found for the purpose of obtaining the necessary licence of the Governor of Hongkong, and for taking all necessary steps for the formation and registration of the Institution with a Memorandum and Articles of Association, and for doing all other things that may be necessary or incidental to the founding of the Institution, whose objects shall be to improve the scientific knowledge of the Members of the Institution, to provide a library, reading and recreation rooms and other desirable or necessary premises for furthering engineering science, encouraging social intercourse, obtaining mental relaxation and other similar objects. Carried unanimously,

The following office bearers were elected by acclamation-Mr. J. M. Boyd, Treasurer; Mr. W. H. Walker, Secretary; Messrs. J. Kinghorn and John Mitchell, Auditors.

The Secretary-I have to call your attention to the fact that our worthy Chairman has no yet been regularly appointed President. He has kindly consented to accept the presidency and i now ask you to signify your wishes on the subject. Amidst loud applause Mr. Gillies was dul elected President for the ensuing year. In very similar manner Messrs. Jas Wotton, George Peebles and Robt. Cooke were elected the vice-Presidents.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the President for his kindness in attending the. meeting and in reply he said-Gentlemen, in closing this meeting I have to congratulate you on the satisfictory manner in which your committee has brought this institution into existence (applause). Of course it is not easy to please every one at all times, but nevertheless I am glad to notice that there is such a manifest good feeling and unanimity amongst the large number of engineers present. I thank you heartily for the honour you; have done me in favouring me with your choice as President and I am convinced that if you all strive earnestly to make this institution a success it will soon prove itself worthy of the young and go ahead, colony in which it is to-night founded. I again tender you, one and all, my warmest congratulations and wish you all the success that the most sanguine amongst you may aspire to (loud applause),

A member-Before we separate I think you will all agree that a very bearty vote of thanks is due to Messrs. Carmichael and Kew for the trouble they have taken in bringing about the establishment of this institution. They, gentleman it was who first conceived the idea and we shall doubtless yet have cause to be very grateful to them (applause). Mr. Aitken seconded and the vote of thanks was carried by acclamation.

Mr. Carmichael said he and his partner had done their best for the engineers; they were very glad to see the institute was now an fatt accompli, and they wished it God-speed. (Applause).

The proceedings then terminated.

SWATOW.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

Swatow, December 2nd, 1890.

Swatow has again attempted to issue from its wonted crepuscular state; at all events if marriages betoken a certain degree of enlightenment, then surely residents here have every cause to congratulate, themselves, whether the young men are blessed with an inordinate amount of susceptibility, or whether the ladies possess an extraordinary fascinating influence may be rather difficult to determine, still the fact remains that, periodically we boldly rise from our somewhat lethargic condition and endeavour to uphold the deservedly popular reputation of the port for marrying and giving in marriage.

And so relative to the above :- The marriage of Miss Piersdorf, daughter of Captain Piersdorf, Double Island, to Mr. Fatherstonhaugh, a most genial and much respected member of the Customs Staff-was duly solemnized, first at the British Consulate and afterwards in church, on the fothultimo. The bride looked lovely in a dress of white Chinese silk with a square train of brocaded silk, and on her head a wieathof orange blossoms and embroidered veil. She carried a bouquet, composed of white chrysanthemums and camelias and the final touch was given to her dainty appearance by a pair of pretty little satin shoes. She was led into church on the arm of 'Mr. Streich, H. I. G. M.'s Consul, and was followed by two beaming little girls as bridesmaids, who bore the train. They were dressed in cream colour with silk sashes, and leghorn hats fastened up at one side by a bow of cream ribbon; they also were gold brooches, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried a basket, each, of -chrysanthemums and pink rose buds.

I can but very inadequately describe the different arrangements. The galaxy of the scene was increased by the decorations in church. Great praise is due to Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Alium, and other ladies, who on such occasions have ever distinguished themselves by the very tasteful manner in which they have carried out the many very appropriate decorations. A red carpet was laid from the door right up to the alter for the bride to walk on, and on each side of this pots of chrysanthemums and crotons were neatly distributed. The alter itself was covered with ferns and chrysanthemums, the space behind being filled up with pots of brilliant coloured crotons, ferns and bamboos. At the conclusion of the ceremony, Mrs. Hill played the "wedding march" as the happy couple walked out; the pathway before them being strewn with flowers. After this, the guests were conveyed to Double Island where a splendid breakfast was provided. At 5 p.m., after being supplied to the full extent with rice and old shoes, the happy pair departed on their honeymoon. The guests retired and reached Swatow again Just at dusk, each having enjoyed themselves immensely. The young unmarried ladies more particularly being evidently greatly impressed by the occurrences of the day. Two days later than this, on the 28th (mercles like misfortunes invariably follow each other) we had a very successful "St. Andrew's Ball. It is quite unnecessary, however, to go into details; sufficient to say, nearly all the residents (European) in Swatow patronized it. Supper was served at midnight. The ladies retired at 3. m.m. but even after this the "Highland dew " tasted just as sweet. The fun went merrily on until old "sol" asserted himself over the lesser glims and lighted many a reluctant reveller home to the bosom of his family.

NORTH BORNEO NOTES.

Good accounts come to hand from many quarters as to the estates on the Labuk, Sugut and Segalind rivers. These will be visited immedistely by the Acting Superintendent of Immigration, and reported on Officially.

We are informed that the Government has accepted the sum of £100 from the Royal Geographical Society of Australasia, for Baron de Lissa in view of a survey of Mount Kinabalu which will be undertaken jointly with an Agricultural survey by the Government of British North Borneo. We shall await with interest the report of the prospecting party. In our last issue appeared a paragraph relating to the serious accident that happened to Baron ce Lissa in August last. In the paragraph w stated the gentleman had recovered. We regret however that in making this statement we were somewhat premature, as we are sorry to say that although able to get about, the Baron has to use a crutch and a chair, he being still unable to mount a herse.

Mr. L. P. Beaufort, Judicial Commissioner, accompanied by Mrs. Beaufert left Sandakan on 21st October, in the steam launch Osprey for Silam, to try a case connected with reported irregularites on the part of the Administrator of

The Tobacco Company of British North Borneo. The Government Cruiser Petrel left Sandakan for Labuan on the evening of Friday October 17th, Bishop Hose being a passenger to that port on his way to Sarawak. The Prirel made a very quick run back, averaging 13 knots.

Information just to hand regarding the latest prices for British North Borneo tobacco shews that the crop raised on the Darvel Bay plantations has realized 157 guilder cents, and the tobacco from the Melapi Estate (which is believed to be the China Borneo Co.'s property) has fetched 151 guilder cents. These figures should be most encouraging, not only to the shareholders of these estates but the other planters, as the prospect of the crops some months back was not a very bright one. It also shows that a really good quality tobacco can be obtained in these places; and after the first expense of clearing and coolie importation, has been overcome, tobacco planting in Borneo may yet become a profitable enterprise. Mr.R. J. Dunlop reports that while at Pagalan some Klappan Dusuns came down and reported the murder of a Chinaman and a Dusun coolie by their own (Klappan) people. The murder was instigated by a Kimanis man who was trading in company with the Chinaman. He sent a note to Mr. Wheatley at Gaya informing him about it, and told the Dusuns who reported the matter, that the best course for them to take was to capture the actual murderers and convey them to Gaya. He pointed out that by doing so they would not only prove their own fidelity to the Government but would save a lot of police being sent up to capture the culprits, under which circumstances, if resistance was offered, more than the actual murderers might suffer. In consenting to the establishment of a Chinese Advisory Board at Sandakan His Excellency the Governor wrote :---

"I have lived for over 20 years amongst Chinese of all ranks and classes and have studied their laws and literature, and I know them to be a law abiding people who are always willing to assist any government that treats them fairly, to put down crime and suppress disturbances of the

"I wish the Chinese residents of Sandakan to enjoy the same if not greater privileges than their country-men enjoy in the neighbouring colonies of Singapore and Hongkong with regard to the celebration of their religious and other customary observances, and although I may not be always able to adopt the surgestions of the Board respecting these and other matters affecting their interests I hall always carefully consider their wants and endeavour to meet them to the best of my ability. Even when I am not in a position to adopt the proposals of the Board I shall be able, by explaining my reasons for declining to do so, to prevent mistakes and wrong impressions. "I confidently rely on the members of the Board to use their best efforts to assist me in preventing the formation of Secret Societies and other il'egal institutions, in ridding the country of any criminals or disorderly persons who may come here from Hongkong or Singapore, and in maintaining law and order. With their help I hope that the Government may be able to effectively protect life and property without the sid of a night-pass system or other restrictive laws which cause so much annoyance and inconvenience to the mass of their countrymen in other Colonies." Mr. Fung Ming Shan returned thanks to His Excellency on behalf of himself and the other members of the Board, and was elected President of the Advisory Board by a majority of seven out of ten votes. The following are the names of the various members:-Messis. Fung Ming-shan, Wong Sow-chun, Chan Ah-chee, Koh Kim-hing, Wong Ching-see, Chan To-pan, Kwok Man-yurg, Cheong Koon-moy, Hon Ming and Chung
